MURDER JURY IN DEADLOCK

STEAM SHOVEL STARTS WORK ON OIL PLANT

Seaman Is Near Death In Accident

Hatch Believed To Have Fallen on Man While Unloading Cargo

In an accident aboard the Standard Oil tanker "Fitzsimmons" early last night, L. McGuire, 27, of 1249 Herbert street, Los Angeles, sustained injuries that may prove fatal.

Following treatment received here, he was removed to the Merritt hospital in Oakland, where little hope is held for his recovery. McGuire is suffering from fractured jaws, internal injuries and a possible fractured skull.

HIT BY HATCH, BELIEF

The accident occurred while the steamer was unloading a cargo at the Standard Oil wharf. McGuire was lowering the hatches on the ship and it is said one of the covers fell on his head resulting in the injuries.

He was attended by Dr. W. S. Innes, who ascertained the nature of his injuries and gave him emergency treatment. Later, he was removed to the Oakland hospital in a Wilson and Kratzner ambulance. He failed to regain consciousness up to a late hour last night and his injuries are such that his recovery is held doubtful.

The CORE

Sale of the last three government owned cargo lines operated in Pacific waters was authorized yesterday. Thirty-six ships will be offered to private bidders.

President Coolidge will receive committee members from the forty-eight states next week and a final statement on his again running on the Republican ticket for the presidency is expected.

Commercial and postal air routes now operating total more than 12,000 miles.

Geo. Kern of N. Y., and a companion are in Rome on their jet aeroplane of Europe. Their plane has a two-cylinder, 20-horsepower motor, capable of 70 miles per hour, and 60 miles on a gallon of gas. The craft sounds like a flying motorcycle.

"Scarface Al" Capone, Chicago gangster leader, is reported in hiding on the Westside and he is reported to have called police and politicians to aid him in regaining his power.

When in need of good sign work of any kind, turn to the BUYERS' GUIDE in the "Classified" section and there you will find that advertisements of reliable sign painters.

WORK SPEEDED TO PERMIT OF TANK BUILDING

Good Progress Reported At End of First Day Of Operations

Despite any statements that may be made to the contrary, actual excavation work on the site of the Petroleum Securities company, was started yesterday with the arrival of the first steam shovel, routed over the Santa Fe spur track to the scene of operations. The job calls for the removal of 30,000 yards of sand, and good progress was reported in yesterday's excavations.

OIL TANKS TO BE BUILT

At the end of this week, the work is expected to have gone far enough to begin construction of the oil tanks. The excavation work and building will continue together, construction crews following the path of the steam shovels.

RUSH WORK FOR TANKERS

No time will be lost in rushing the work for the reception of the first tanker to dock here probably about February 15.

EXCAVATE TO BEDROCK

To insure a firm foundation, excavations are being carried to bedrock on which reinforced concrete rings will be laid. The tanks will rest on these. This is being done instead of the cut and fill method usually resorted to by oil firms.

All the tanks will have Gailagher pontoon roofs which tests have proved to be efficient for oil storage tanks making them practically impervious to heat. While this type of tank causes great expense in construction the company is installing this type of tank to prevent inflammability.

PHONE BANDITS TO FACE TRIAL

Court was adjourned to the bed-side of W. F. Young, 2125 Blake street, Berkeley, yesterday, when Young was found too ill to appear at the Berkeley city hall and testify as a chief witness in the case against Edward Reed and Kenneth Styer confessed "telephone bandits," wanted in Richmond on two charges.

On the testimony of Young, whose employer, George O. Wright, butcher, of 3312 Adeline street, Berkeley, is alleged to have been victimized by the pair and the statement of Inspector James Wilson of Berkeley police that the two ex-convicts had confessed 24 "jobs," Reed and Styer were held to answer to the Superior Court. They are in jail in default of $2,000 bail set in each case.

Hundreds of dollars are said to have been secured by the pair in operations among merchants in the East Bay. The old trick by which one called the merchant to a telephone nearby while the other took advantage of the empty store to rifle the cash drawer was used, according to police.

The men were captured in San Francisco through the license of their auto obtained by Young after they had robbed the butcher shop several weeks ago.

KENTS RETURN

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Kent, have returned to Richmond after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Dr. Kent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kent of Bakersfield.

WOT'S THIS? GANGLAND OR A SYSTEM!

MARTINEZ, Nov. 29.—The State of California, "Sally One" Tewksbury, "Susie One" Tewksbury, "Jane Doe" Tewksbury, "Richard Roe" Tewksbury, "Tome One" Smith, "Bill Two" Jones, "Jack Three" Miller, "Dick Four" Wells, "Mary One" Doe, "Annie Two" Cat, "Susie Three" Bird, "Jane Four" Ducks, and "Flat Flossie," were all named defendants in a quiet title suit filed against them by the Richmond Investment Company, concerning a lot in Richmond.

UNUSUAL TALK GIVEN LIONS

"In advertising, it is the unusual that counts." This was the theme of the address of Dr. B. J. Palmer, founder and president of the Palmer school of Chiropractic of Davenport, Ia., who addressed the members of the Richmond Lions club at their luncheon in the Hotel Carquinez yesterday.

To prove that Dr. Palmer believes in practicing his belief a glimpse at the Chiropractic leader will convince the most skeptical. His long hair and a flowing Windsor tie beneath a pointed beard is reminiscent of the late leader, Elbert Hubbard, of whom Dr. Palmer is an ardent disciple.

He is well aware of his unusual appearance and is cognizant of the fact that he attracts attention wherever he goes. As he told the Lions, any one of them could walk unnoticed in a crowd because they are a part of the crowd. But let him walk down the street, enter a theatre or hotel lobby or be present in any public place and he is immediately sorted from the crowd.

He spoke in crisp sentences that drove their messages quickly into the minds of his audience.

Not once during the course of his address did he speak of his own profession. His talk was interspersed with humorous anecdotes and pungent sayings that kept his audience interested throughout. Epigrammatic excerpts from his address were as follows: The unusual and printers' ink (Continued on Page 8.)

18 Initiated By Richmond Elks

Eighteen candidates were initiated last night into the Richmond lodge of Elks with Dr. A. B. Hinkley presiding. Entertainment for the evening was provided by a committee headed by Frank Keller.

Reservations for the dinner dance of the Richmond lodge, December 10, have mounted to 125. Secretary Edgar Dale announced that the total number of reservations is 250. The dance will be held at the clubrooms of the Oakland Elks.

$2500 Cottage Will Be Erected Here

A cottage and garage will be built on the south side of Humboldt avenue between Santa Clara and Panhandle avenues by C. H. Parker, the owner, according to a building permit issued by City Building Inspector A. J. Hurley yesterday. The building will cost $2,500. The Earl Realty company procured a permit to build a frame addition to a building on the south side of Macdonald Ave. between Forty-fourth and Forty-sixth streets at a cost of $500.

Children In Frenzy Of Delight As Old Santa Rules Over Richmond

UNVEILING OF WINDOWS OF LOCAL MERCHANTS GIVES FIRST HINT OF YULE SURPRISES

With the arrival of Santa Claus by airplane yesterday afternoon, the illumination of the community Christmas tree and distribution of gifts to the children last night, the Yule Tide season was officially ushered into Richmond, by the Richmond merchants.

WINDOWS UNVEILED

To add further to the celebration, merchants of the city last night unveiled their windows exposing for the first time to the view of the public the Christmas stock of merchandise.

The crowning event was the tree illumination in Memorial park last night. Children from all parts of the city accompanied by their parents crowded into the park to greet Santa Claus and to see the huge tree lighted. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Richmond Union high school band.

SANTA IN PARADE

Following the parade of Santa Claus through Richmond escorted by traffic officers who cleared the way, the distinguished visitor from the Arctic regions made his appearance on the platform of the band shell in the park while hundreds of children yelled their greetings to their old friend.

Clifford Anglim, secretary of the Merchants Association who has been appointed official escort for Santa Claus during his visit in Richmond, introduced the genial gentleman to the crowd and presented Mayor Mattie Chandler.

MAYOR WELCOMES MR. CLAUS
In a brief address, Mayor Chandler welcomed Santa Claus to Richmond and expressed her happiness at being present. She thanked the merchants of the city who made possible the celebration of a community Christmas for Richmond. In closing she urged the little ones not to forget their Creator and to attend their respective churches during the season.

TREE LIGHTED

Stepping to the middle of the platform, she pressed a button and the large tree in front of the band shell was illuminated in green and red lights. Yells and whistling of the children and the clapping of adult hands praised the Christmas tree, the symbol that expresses more than all the spirit of the season.

GIFTS DISTRIBUTED

Santa Claus then began unpacking large boxes of gifts to be distributed to the children and the crowd surged toward the band shell. Members of the Richmond police department watched the front ranks of the children to keep any of them from being trampled upon as they crowded toward Santa Claus for their gifts.

Children of the city got their first view of Santa Claus yesterday afternoon when they gathered at the landing field on Ohio avenue and First street. Long before Kris Kringle appeared, the edge of the flying field was packed with the throngs of children and their parents.

"LINDBERGH WELCOME"
When the plane was only a dot on the horizon, it was spotted by the crowd and the shout went up: "Here comes Santa Claus." From then on until long after the arrival of the plane, screams of delight were sent up by the excited children.

Before landing, the plane circled the city several times and made a clear landing on the field. Members of the police department under Police Inspector George Bangley and Sergeant Charles (Continued on Page 8.)

DEDICATION OF SHAFT TO WAR DEAD DEC. 11

Ceremonies Planned For Memorial Completion; Many Contribute

Scout Work Told To Exhangeites

Thomas G. Gray of the Richmond Boy Scouts Court of Honor was the speaker at the dinner of the Richmond Exchange club last night. He spoke of the Boy Scout organization and the work being done here in Richmond among the five troops. He called attention to the work of the Contra Costa county council in interesting various service and fraternal groups in the movement.

He dwelt on the oath or code of ethics of the Boy Scouts which is the foundation for the work and activities of the organization. He also spoke of the international aspect of the organization in working for the betterment of the youths in various nations.

Henry Solto was chairman of the day. Lloyd Bolt was elected High chief and Captain Ernest Howard of the fire department was chosen song leader. Lloyd Bolt will be chairman of the next meeting.

Man Arrested On Check Charges

Alleged to have "left town" more than a year ago, after a warrant had been sworn out for his arrest on a charge of issuing checks with no funds in the bank, Clarence Welch was last night arrested by Inspector George Bengtson, and lodged in the city jail. He will appear in the Court of Justice & the Peace Alstrom this morning.

Oakland—Great new highway for northeastern Oakland.

Missing!

POLICE have started search for Mrs. Katherine Rousey, 32, favorite songbird of Lockland, O., who started for New York last Friday to try for an operatic career. Her hubby, Dr. Schuyler Rousey, has had no word from her.

ACCIDENT TOLL REACHES FOUR

Auto accidents took a toll of four damaged automobiles, drivers and occupants of the machines escaping unhurt yesterday.

A California Transit company stage, driven by William Curson, of 1714 East Fourteenth street, Oakland, collided with a car driven by F. M. Gordon of 464 Ount street, at Twenty-third street and Macdonald avenue, last night, damaging fenders on both cars.

A car driven by John Hubbard of 412 Florida avenue, crashed with a machine belonging to Reno Calro, of 49 Contra Costa avenue, Point Richmond, damaging both cars to a slight extent. The accident occurred at Thirteenth street and Bissell avenue.

A machine in which H. M. Briggs and wife, of 1554 Sonoma avenue, Albany, were driving, crashed with a car operated by A. Maria of Phine at Twenty-third and Nevin yesterday morning. Both cars were damaged.

F. A. Jenkins of 2443 Esmond avenue is alleged to have crashed with a car belonging to Lloyd Wilson, of 29 Tunnel avenue, and parked at 41 Tunnel avenue.

Allot Jail Term For Speeding

George Foster of 325 Third St. pleaded guilty in Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Alstrom's court yesterday to a charge of speeding 65 miles per hour. He was sentenced to five days in jail with a week's stay of sentence to allow him to settle business affairs.

W. W. Curnow of 1714 East Fourteenth avenue Oakland was fined $10 on a charge of speeding 47 miles per hour. Both citations were issued by Traffic Officer Charles H. Nissen.

RETURN TO RICHMOND

Mrs. Pearl Meindorse and her son, have returned to their home, 428 Seventh street, after two months in Long Beach.

Ernie Martin, of Twelfth street and Macdonald Avenue, is confined to his home with a bad cold.

MANSLAUGHTER VERDICT LOOMS FOR ACCUSED

Disagreement Predicted; Flores Takes Stand In Own Defense

Failing to arrive at a verdict after five hours of deliberation the jury hearing the evidence in the trial of Librado Flores, accused of killing his friend Antonio Mariscal during a street brawl in North Richmond five weeks ago, was locked up for the night. Indications are that the jury will in all probability fail to agree on a verdict and will be discharged some time today, it was stated in official sources.

MANSLAUGHTER VERDICT!

That Flores will never be convicted of first degree murder was the general belief in Martinez yesterday afternoon at the close of the trial. The belief is that if a verdict is brought in against the defendant one of manslaughter will be the most that can be expected.

FLORES ON STAND

Concluding defense testimony Flores took the stand yesterday morning and responding to queries of his attorneys, T. D. Johnston and H. M. Bishop, denied that he had used a knife in the brawl between himself and a half dozen Portuguese and said he did not kill Mariscal. Mariscal, friend of Flores, was slain by a stab wound in the neck sustained when he sought to prevent the battle.

In arguments to the jury Deputy District Attorney James F. Hoey cited the statements of two witnesses that they had heard Flores threaten to slay Mariscal if he did not refrain from interference. Hoey asked the jury to bring in a verdict of first degree murder and declared that the least they could do would be to bring in a verdict of manslaughter.

Defense counsel intimated a "frame-up" pointing to the finding of blood stained pickets which were ripped from the fence for use in the battle, near the Flores home, a block from the scene of the murder and the bearing of Flores near his home by a gang of men after the killing. The knife used in the slaying, it was pointed out, was never found.

Testimony in the case indicated that the fatal fight resulted from the use of curse words.

TRUCK WEIGHT ORDER UPHOLD

MARTINEZ, Nov. 29.—Contra Costa's Board of Supervisors today won another victory in its fight to prevent destruction of the county's highway system by heavily laden trucks when B. B. Meek, state director of public works, issued an order formally approving an ordinance enacted by the board, which cuts the legal weight for trucks using the Tunnel and San Pablo Creek highways from 21,000 to 16,000 pounds. The order, received by District Attorney A. B. Tinning, sustains the board argument of necessity of imposition of load restrictions to prevent highway disintegration.

The ordinance, Tinning announced after receipt of Meek's order, becomes effective immediately. Violation of the measure is a misdemeanor and is punishable by both fine and jail sentence.

CARLSON WITNESS

T. M. Carlson, city attorney of Richmond, was in Martinez yesterday being called as a rebuttal witness in the Flores murder trial.

George Remus, erstwhile cupbearer to a dry martini, yesterday won hands down in his fight for his life in the Cincinnati court.

MORE PROTECTION NEEDED

A total of $835,000,000 worth of American farm products were exported during the year ending June 30, 1927, an increase of more than 13 per cent over the previous year. The exports of grains and principal cereals, ran to $402,000,000 a 54 per cent increase over the 1926 figure.

The black spot was the increase, however, in the value of foreign agricultural products imported into this country. It is plain that what the farmer needs is an increase in tariff protection rather than the abandonment of that American principle.

NEED OF CURB ON ORATORY

Congress is really facing a problem in its attempt to clear its docket during the coming session—the first of the 70th. While it is true that congress which comes in December can, if it so desires, continue in session almost indefinitely, experience has shown that where a national campaign is on, the national law-making body generally closes its doors on or about the time of the national conventions. When it does quit, as it will probably in the middle of June, 1928, it will re-assemble again in December, 1928, but that session will end automatically and summarily on the 4th of March, 1929.

In view of these circumstances, the wealth of oratory which generally distinguishes congressional sessions, and which except in rare cases is not particularly harmful promises this time to work to the disruption of the necessary legislative program. In short, the man who points with pride and views with alarm for an hour or so on the floor of congress will be pretty close to a public disturber, and it will be rather surprising if there is not a more determined effort made in the senate, for example to invoke and use a cloture rule for the curtailment of unlimited debate.

How To Earn Money!

I often wonder, my dear readers, how many of you, before acting on my advice or suggestions, decide that after all it is too much trouble to work at home. There are so many other duties and pleasures! I hope there are not many who feel that way. Because, aside from the profit that any determined effort is bound to bring, you will find a joy in working and in knowing that you can actually create something that people want to buy. But don't think that you can reach the heights of achievement with your first effort. Even the people who are talented must study and practice to reach their goal. "Genius" as some one truly said, "is a capacity for hard work." I can tell from the letters that most of my readers must be geniuses!

I am a high school girl, faced with the proposition of working my way through dramatic school. I do not necessarily have to work at home; in fact, I'd rather not. How can a girl with no experience earn a fairly good salary with the least possible amount of training? A business course would take six months, and then it would be about a year before I earned a worth-while salary.

I wonder what you mean, my dear, by a worth-while salary? As a clerk or salesgirl you might earn from $15 to $20 a week. The training is simple and you can usually learn your duties in a short time. I advise you to get over your prejudice against business courses; training of any kind is always an asset, and the sooner you get it the sooner you'll get a "worth-while salary."

I'm starting a candy business in my own home. How can I sell the chocolates? I worked at it many years, but never for myself. I can make chocolates, but don't know how to start selling.—Mrs. C. C. La.

I love to get candy! That isn't a hint, but it does make a birthday or a date, seem nicer, doesn't it? Find out the birthdays and anniversaries of your neighbors and then sell them candy on that day. Of course, sell it other times too. I'll send you the addresses of the women's exchanges, meanwhile try to build up a trade among the people near you.

Affairs of the Heart and Your Marriage Problems

Patricia Lee

Patricia Lee answers questions relating to problems of married life. Names and address should be added to letters as a mark of good faith but will not be published. Readers who desire private answers should inclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover cost of typing, etc. Because of space limitations it is not possible to print answers to all letters received, and readers who wish an early reply should take advantage of this special service. On account of the large quantity of mail coming to this department, about ten days should be allowed for a reply. Write to Patricia Lee, care of this paper.

How can a man expect to get returns on happiness and contentment from the business of the marriage that he has entered if he doesn't put into it the same fine principles of honor and integrity that he would put into a business that he expects to prosper?

If he isn't honorable in his dealings with his wife and I mean in every way, how can he expect his wife to trust him? If a woman can't trust her husband, how can she respect him and without respect, what have you?

Oh, I don't mean to sermonize and what I say is surely applicable to a woman as to a man, but the number of letters that I receive that hinge on this very thing of either man or woman telling petty lies to cover up some mistake and then in turn telling more untruths to cover up the first ones, there's no hope at all for success in marriage without an honest effort to be fair and square in everything.

Sometimes the truth hurts, most horribly, but in the end the business of being told the truth is nothing compared to the scolding of the hideousness of mistrust that grows and grows like a malignant growth when either one has deceived the other and is detected.

Dear Patricia Lee:

I have tried to solve my own problem but I can't. We have been married two years and my husband has one terrible fault. I had not been married very long before I found out that my husband had lied to me, and when I questioned him he told me more lies to cover up the first ones. He had borrowed money that I did not know about.

I begged him to stop telling me lies and even had him to move from the town we were living in and started out anew here. I got new confidence in him, and we were very happy until one day I discovered again that he had been borrowing money. I was terribly hurt, and even when he told me what he had done with the money I could not believe him. This has gone on time and time again, and I can't believe or trust him any more. What shall I do? I have almost made up my mind to divorce him. What shall I do?—UN-HAPPY WIFE, Seattle.

No wonder you are distressed. No wife should be expected to go on forever forgiving and forgetting, just to start all over again and have a man not tell her the truth. Have you talked to your husband as you talked to me in your letter? Have you told him just the way you feel and put it up to him to see if he can't get over this terrible habit? Tell him that if he will but tell you the truth about bills he contracts that maybe you can see where you can help him, but that as the other member of the partnership of marriage that you two entered you should know. Maybe you are living beyond your income and your husband finds it hard to keep up the pace you are setting, for after all it really is his pace, do talk it over with him once again.

Dear Patricia Lee:

In your column the other night you quoted a letter from one who has all the earmarks of being a real yarn and yet you advise him to pussyfoot along with a woman who apparently does not know the rudiments of married life. It seems next to impossible for the present day married woman to reason with her spouse unless she is given an awful big jolt. The opportunity furnished you by your department is big. Your influence on this important question might well be used to better advantage. I trust you will not allow prejudice to stand in the way of judgment.—R. T.

Well, well, but you didn't give Jack D. any of your advice, did you? I am very glad to find that you don't agree with me, but only wish that you had stated your views on the matter of a man complaining about a nagging wife, though he admitted that six of the same years that he had been married were very happy ones. I really don't mean to be prejudiced and try hard to see both sides of the question.

WHAT YOUR BODY TELLS

We do not have the strength in our feet and ankles which the primitive man had because we do not tread as nature planned. This wonderful structure, the foot, with its two arches, one running parallel and one transverse, a marvelous framework of twenty six bones and soft cushions of cartilage, was not meant to tread on hard, unyielding floors and stone pavements.

Primitive man had the plant, kindly earth and the grass under his feet. More than this, primitive man did not cram his feet in tight shoes and compel his feet to carry such weights and lift the burdens which modern civilization has exacted. Man's physical action and his mental emotion reaction are usually affected by his physical condition. One who is suffering with foot trouble cannot have a keen, alert mind with the proper attitude toward life problems. By observing the way a person wears his shoes one can draw a pretty accurate conclusion as to his habits of thought. You can tell his temperament and inclinations.

It takes an energetic fellow to hit his heels on the outside and wear them down. This indicates leadership and executive ability. While wearing off the outside of his heel, this man usually wears off also the inside of the toe. This grinding of the outside heel and inside toe is due to the peculiar twisting of the foot in an effort to "get there."

People who wear their heels down on the outside are superior in many ways to the average individual.

GOOD MANNERS

Q. In laying a table in what order should the silver be placed?
A. Silver should always be placed in the order in which it is to be used, beginning at the outside. The knife or knives are placed at the right of the plate, with the cutting edge toward the plate; the spoons, with the bowl facing up, at the right of the knife; the forks, with tines turned upward, at the left of the plate. Silver for the dessert course is sometimes brought in with the dessert.

YOUR BIRTHDAY

NOVEMBER 17

This is the birthday of Toscha Seidel, the well-known Russian violinist. Mr. Seidel was born when the Sun was merging his rays with those of Jupiter in Scorpio, which denoted great success. The Moon was in musical Taurus, which endowed Mr. Seidel with much of the Taurine persistence as well as with the gift of music. Mars and Venus were closely contracting each other in the fiery Sagittarius and added the foresight and enthusiasm of Sagittarius to the intensity and magnetism of Scorpio. Being the travel sign, the prominence of Sagittarius in his horoscope indicated that this young violinist was destined to make an international reputation.

This is also the birthday of Miss Betty Bronson. Among historical characters born November 17, we find the name of Louis XVIII, of France, who was born in 1755.

Both Scorpio and Taurus take very violent likes and dislikes to people upon first meeting them. These feelings may be well founded, though they appear to be quite unreasonable; but they should not be allowed to prejudice the judgment in business relations. It is impossible for most temperaments to like everybody, but a business acquaintance does not necessarily entail liking or friendship and this is one of the lessons that the child of Scorpio must learn.

EXERCISE WHILE YOU SLE

One need not degenerate physically because one's occupation is sedentary. Always sit erect, with the small of the back supported against the back of your chair. You may exercise while sitting by holding the chest high, and by stiffening the muscles of each leg, first the left and then the right. All the muscles of the body may be exercised by this stiffening and relaxing method while sitting. Try pointing the feet until they are tense, then relax. Try pulling in your toes inside your shoes.

SYNOPSIS

Buckwell, Franco politician, wants to secure Vasquez ranch. His nephew, Terry, loves Dolores Vasquez and exposes Buckwell's perjury. Buckwell tries to wreck Terry's life unless Dolores clears his name. She saves Terry, but later refutes the lie and forces Buckwell to flee into the underworld. Buckwell abducts Dolores. Holds her prisoner in infamous den where he plans to sell her into white slavery. Fire and earthquake save her from terrible fate as property of wealthy Chinaman.

Weakly she continued to crawl toward a door. Her groping hands touched its cold iron surface. She crossed the threshold and behind her a falling beam crashed down. The shock of its fall with its closeness was the final straw that broke her ebbing strength and with a soft moan she dropped forward in a dead faint.

Outside in the room she had just left the lone lamp sputtered in despair and went out. The whole place was in pitch blackness. Over her head and around her were heavy walls of steel. Scattered about her lay the gold and jewels of years of accumulation. The wealth of Chinatown! Dolores crawled into the vault of Chinatown's richest mandarin, and lay there silent as death, the most precious gem of them all.

Up above, half of San Francisco was being devastated. More than fifteen square miles of the city was being laid waste with a thoroughness that was appalling. Railroads and ferries stopped running, the water supply was cut off, telephone and telegraph lines were out of commission, electric power was shut off or put out of order by falling walls and quaking ground.

"And so, my brother, we meet again!"

But the spirit of San Francisco responded nobly. The offspring of those pioneers who cultured all the virtues of the old world, and searched for gold in the hills around San Francisco, faced this awful calamity with a courage that never faltered. Martial law was immediately declared. Dead lines were established and soldiers patrolled the streets with orders to shoot to kill any who disobeyed or were caught looting. The fire department and the police did wonderful work, and many are the stories of heroism that will live permanently in the history of the city. Buildings were dynamited in an effort to halt the fire's progress, and when no more dynamite was to be found, the artillery was called for and the roar of cannons added to the city's confusion throughout the day.

Terry and Buckwell's dwarfed Chinese brother had escaped death a hundred times as they scurried through the maze of passages to their frantic effort to find Dolores. The dwarf knew where she had been taken but time after time they found their way blocked by fallen debris. Terry would not give up the search until Dolores had been found or he had perished with her. The dwarf was equally determined to find Buckwell. The years of imprisonment had kindled a hatred for Buckwell so intense that the dwarf would not be satisfied until he was sure that Buckwell had perished.

Here and there stray bits of sunshine filtered through openings overhead where some fallen beam had cleared a passage way to the open air. For the first time in its history the underworld of San Francisco was open to the light of day. Strangely enough it seemed to symbolize the purification of sin and crime. The form of a young girl with a arm protruding from under a

AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

CROOK PICTURE HOLDS BOARDS AT CALIFORNIA

Shortly after the San Francisco fire and earthquake, when Lawrence Gray was a cub reporter on a San Francisco daily paper, he followed with zeal and energy the achievements of the famous "gas pipe thugs" that infested the damaged city and created a reign of terror until finally gathered into the police net.

In his role opposite Norma Shearer in "After Midnight," which is coming today to the California Theatre, Gray plays the role of a "gas pipe thug." Miss Shearer is his victim in this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, the ending of which is far happier than any of the gas pipe stories gathered by Gray for the newspapers for which he formerly worked.

"The gas pipe thug," says Gray, "was a very dangerous character, mainly from the fact that most of his victims were women. He derived his name from the fact that he carried a two-foot length of gas pipe, which he used for the conveyance of gas. He would approach a woman in some lonely part of town and offer to sell her a piece of pipe for so much money."

"This, of course, was the equivalent of threatening to knock her unconscious with the pipe and robbing her of all her money unless she bought the piece of pipe. Usually the frightened woman would gladly pay over the sun demanded rather than risk being the victim of physical violence."

"The lead pipe, or gas pipe thug," was a low type of crook who frequented disreputable pool rooms, dives, cheap barrooms and the like. He went out with his gas pipe only when he needed some money for liquor or to gamble with. In fact, he was too lazy and no account to even be a real robber. This made him doubly dangerous."

"After Midnight" was directed by Monta Bell, who was also the author of the original screen story. Gwen Lee plays the role of Miss Shearer's very wild sister. The story is a very dramatic one, though high-lighted with comedy.

Other features include "Bringing Home The Turkey," a Hal Roach "Our Gang" comedy; Football Sense "Football Field Officials"; and International News.

by Yell Leader Al Brooks, James McMurtrie, scoutmaster, presided. The following program was given: Edward Hill, baritone solo; Edward Morgan, flute solo; Torrey Wuesthoff, clarinet solo; Donald McKenzie, violin number; Frank Boden, piano selection; and a band number by Donald Freese. Two boxing bouts were put on by the following boys: Al Brooks vs. Donald McKenzie and Sherman Dray vs. Eugene Rafter.

Deputy State President Charles D. Sweeney of Antioch, State President Judge H. C. Pulifer of Oakland, State Chaplain John P. Steckler of Napa City were the evening's principal speakers.

Thug Plays Gentlemen

NEVER THINK to look at Lawrence Gray in this peaceful moment with Norma Shearer that he is in reality (on the screen) a gas pipe thug of the first water, perhaps waiting for the opportunity to send poor Norma into a coma with a well applied blow of the aforesaid section of pipe.

"CAMILLE" IS FEATURE FILM AT RICHMOND

The filming of Alexandre Dumas' famous love classic, "Camille," as the latest starring vehicle of Norma Talmadge, for First National has given to the screen a variety of settings that are said by the foremost interior decorators to be the acme of luxury and comfort.

Miss Talmadge's "Camille" is the romance known to countless thousands of book lovers and theatregoers, portrays the most splendid atmosphere, under conditions as they exist today in Paris. This modernization of the French classic is called for a degree of lavishment in production that exceeds even the most elaborate of Miss Talmadge's previous pictures.

"Camille's" boudoir, is visualized in the picture, is declared to achieve the ultimate in richness of decoration and furnishings, from the beautiful bed, with its black satin spreads and pillows, to the smallest articles in evidence.

The celebrated "Lady of the Camellias," French bath, similarly, is a setting of rare beauty with its striking tile and marble effects, its colorful decoration and its gorgeous draperies.

Other evidences of luxury are found in the ball room and gambling room which serves as the scenes of an elaborate entertainment attended by the most spendthrift group of merry-makers in Paris. The revel is featured by a pageant of the sirens, in which popular beauties portray the notable heartbreakers for various periods in history.

Miss Talmadge's latest screen contribution, in which she is supported by Gilbert Roland, a new leading man, and a well balanced cast, is coming to the Richmond Theatre today. "Camille" was produced by Joseph M. Schenk for First National with Fred Niblo as director.

Other film features include "Snookums Disappears," a roaring comedy; and the latest Fox News events.

*An entirely new car
in every respect*

The minute you see it—ride in it—you will realize that it is not a mere refinement of the former model T Ford, but a new car from radiator cap to rear axle! Many features of it are exclusive Ford developments. Some are wholly new in car has exceptional beauty of line and color. It is, in every respect, a new and modern car, designed and created to meet modern conditions.*

automobile practice. There is nothing quite like it in quality and price.

The new Ford car has unusual beauty of line and color. . . . It has a 40-horse-power engine. . . . It will do 55 and 60 miles an hour with ease and has actually run 65 miles an hour on road tests. . . . It is quiet and smooth-running at all speeds. . . . It is remarkably quick on the get-away. . . . It has specially designed mechanical four-wheel brakes. . . . It has hydraulic shock absorbers. . . . It has a standard, selective gear shift. . . . It is quick and easy to handle in traffic and steady and sure on the open road. . . . It runs 20 to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline, depending on your speed. . . . And it has the stamina and reliability that you need for mile-after-mile and year-after-year service.

The new Ford car will sell at a surprisingly low price

When you think of such features as these, you think instinctively of a car costing much more than the new Ford. The low price is as unusual as the appearance and performance of the car itself.

The low prices of the six body types are undoubtedly lower than you thought they would be when you first heard that Ford was making a new car. They are, in fact, lower than we thought they could possibly be when we started to make this car.

We determined to bring new comfort, beauty, speed, safety, economy and reliability within reach of everybody who drives a car, and then forced ourselves to find ways to make the low prices possible.

The new Ford car is the result of years of careful planning. Every part of it has been tested and retested in actual practice. There is no guessing as to whether it will be a successful model. It has to be. There is no way it can escape being so, for it is the sum total of all we have learned about motor car building in the lifetime of the Ford business.

Some of the features of the new Ford car

In this connection we call your particular attention to the new engine; the new pump, splash and gravity oil system; the multiple dry-disc clutch; the new pump and thermo-syphon cooling system; the new battery, coil and distributor ignition; the low center of gravity and minimum unsprung weight which combine with the hydraulic shock absorbers to make the new Ford such an easy-riding car; the irreversible steering gear, with the column and the housing of the steering gear mechanism welded into a single all-steel unit; the seamless, all-steel torque tube; the new one-piece, welded, steel-spoke wheels; the three-quarters-floating rear axle in a forged-steel housing of exceptional strength; the theft-proof coincidental lock; and the aluminum pistons which were selected after many tests because of their light weight and heat-conducting qualities.

*"The new Ford car embodies the best results of our experience in making 15,000,000 automobiles.
We consider it our most important contribution thus far to the progress of the motor industry, to the prosperity of the country, and to the daily welfare of millions of people."*

Henry Ford

Steel forgings are used throughout except, of course, for the engine castings. More steel forgings, in fact, are used in the new Ford than in almost any other car, regardless of price.

WE ARE able to sell this new Ford car at a low price because we have found new ways to give you greater value without a great increase in our own costs. Because we own our own ore mines, coal mines and timber lands and the source of most of our raw materials. Because we make virtually every part used in the new Ford car. Because it is the Ford policy to make a small profit on a large number of cars, rather than a large profit on a small number of cars.

There is nothing like it in quality and price

No other manufacturer can possibly duplicate the new Ford car at the Ford price because no other manufacturer does business the way we do. The public made this business possible. We believe we should share our profits with the public by continually giving greater and greater value for the money.

There are good and substantial reasons, therefore, why the new Ford car is the most unusual value ever offered in a low-price car.

By all means, learn about the new Ford on Friday when it is officially announced in this city. You will know then that there is nothing quite like it anywhere in quality and price.

HARD BATTLES ON TAP FRIDAY AT EL CERRITO

By far the biggest turn out of the year is expected in El Cerrito Friday night, when Chick Roach of Vallejo and Tiger Bob Robinson of Denver tangle in the main event for ten rounds. Roach and Robinson are training for this match as if a title were at stake. To Robinson it means much as he has many offers from other clubs should he win. To Roach it means pride. Chick would not have his many friends from Vallejo come down and see him beaten by a colored man. For size and weight they will be like two peas in a pod. It will just be a case of endurance and toughness and may the better man win. Both have had the same amount of experience and should either suffer defeat they can offer no alibi but only that the best man won.

Under the main event Frankie Stetson of San Francisco and Buddy Ryan of Pinole box for the semi-windup. Seldom has a boy come to the front like Stetson and he is the reigning sensation right now of the squared circle in California.

Mickey Brown, the best boy seen in a long time in Richmond will box a four rounder against Phil Guerrero of Nevada.

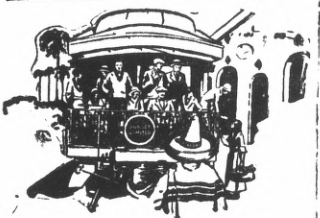

Cliff Hotteger and Joe Schwartz both of El Cerrito, are to step four rounds or less.

Bobby McIntyre of Oakland and Young Franklin of Berkeley, heavyweights will clash in another four rounder.

Charlie Actis of Richmond and Young Cumpston of Oakland will open the show.

Price Returns From Scouting Penn Gridders Set For Game

BERKELEY, Nov. 29. Nibs Price, University of California football coach will return Sunday from an excursion east to scout the University of Pennsylvania Quakers, opponents of the Bears in a post-season game on December 31, and his head will probably be busy with plans for stopping Penn's now famous aerial attack unless in its game with Cornell.

The Quakers met Cornell on Thanksgiving day and with Price as one of the spectators went over the Bears' heads for a 35 to 0 victory. They threw 15 completed forward passes for an average gain of 23 yards and a total advance of some 339 yards, probably a record for the 1927 season.

Penn's veteran halfback, Paul Murphy, was on the tossing end of a majority of the passes, and Johnny Schuler rated as one of the East's smartest field generals was the receiver. It is this combination that the Bears will have to watch.

Penn, like California, was seriously handicapped earlier in the season by injuries to the west-end line. The game with Harvard that jinx had been overcome and with a hitherto undiscovered offensive power the Crimson, Columbia and Cornell were humbled in a row.

With the experience gained in these games and the opportunity of added practice after the western trip the Pennsylvania team, eastern critics say, will probably be one of the strongest invading teams that ever came out of the east.

Word received from Philadelphia yesterday said that Coach Lou Young and his squad would leave there on December 17 and arrive in Berkeley on December 21. The Quakers, following the lead of several other teams which have made a western trek, will content themselves with black board talks while en route. When they came to Berkeley in 1925 practice sessions were held at Chicago, Omaha and Ogden, but Young feels that in coming here two weeks before the game he has allowed plenty of time for both practice and conditioning.

Reiding—Shasta County's largest trout hatchery, on Burney Lake near Patone, opened.

TELL-TALE ARTERIES

Are your arteries showing a tendency towards becoming hard? Do you have any difficulty in breathing, heart palpitation or dizzy spells? Look out for high blood pressure! It's a dangerous condition that may cut life short. Living at the pace we do today we put too great a strain upon our vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming "limp" or sluggish, fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. Then a toxic condition of the whole system with heart and blood vessels affected. The liver occasionally needs a little help and there's nothing better for this, as doctors agree, than ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functions. It is essential to real health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteful form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few make a wonderful difference.

THEY DON'T PAL TOGETHER—

Ed Sullivan's SPORT WHIRL

BILL DUFFY LEADS BY TWO EARS
When we Willie Smith sailed in from South Africa and joined up with the cauliflower ears now wagging for Bill Duffy, it marked an important step in the battle now being waged by fight managers all over the country for the control of the cauliflower outfit.

The acquisition of Willie Smith the South African holder of the European title places Duffy several ears in front of the cauliflower procession.

It is in the nature of an open secret that Dempsey, when he fights again, will be under the direction of Duffy in addition to Dempsey. Duffy will then have Leo Lomski, Ace Hudkins, Andy Di Vodi, Jackie Fields, Billy Grimes, Willie Smith, Jack Silvers, Eddie Anderson, Walter Hozan and Eddie Reilly, who has just emerged from the amateur ranks.

I doubt that any fight manager in the game can hold a candle to that list. In the matter of earning power and prestige this Duffy stands by itself.

He is in the same position as Cash-and-Carry Pyle when Pyle had led Grange, Suzanne Lenglen, Vincent Richards and Mary K. Browne under his direction.

I have often wondered why it was that C. C. Pyle and Bill Pickens left the boxing racket so severely alone.

On closer consideration, it is a matter of concern that these two masters of the ring, who stayed on the sidelines while other less worthy ballyhoo artists than themselves have earned a living in the manipulation of success on the Cauliflower Change.

Pyle, who buckled the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association and the colleges as well, is just the entry to buck the moguls of the leather trade. And yet you won't find so much as a featherweight on his list.

ALVIS ONE OF MID-WEST'S BIG DEALERS
Dealing in Cauliflower Ltd. shares is not confined to New York city although I believe the boys along the metropolitan Tin Ear "Alvis for Artists" is his trade slogan, but the suspicion on the part of other sections of the country.

Ray Alvis of Chicago does a wholesale business with Chuck Wiggins, Eddie Shea and Meyer Grace as his headliners.

"Alvis for Artists" is his trade slogan, but the suspicion on the part of certain officials that Shea was too much of an artist against Charlie Phil Rosenberg one night has dampened Ray's enthusiasm for New York.

This by the way, was one of the most stirring scraps ever staged in New York. If it actually was a phony, then I'm for bigger and better phonyes. The Civil War was a brawl between housemaids compared to the Shea-Rosenberg shindig, which ended with Shea knocked out.

Tom McGrath of the Pacific Coast is another noted wholesaler McGrath does not go in heavily for quality, but he does stress quantity. He believes that fifteen fighters, getting $500 per capita a fight, can do more business than one high-priced scrapper getting $5,000 for his end.

A course in adult arithmetic will convince you of the soundness of McGrath's reckoning.

FRANK CHURCHILL LIKES A MANILA FLAVOR
Of all the cauliflower connoisseurs, Frank Churchill alone is a specialty trader.

Churchill stands alone when it comes to Filipino fighters. He had Pancho Villa and since that time he had Elio Flores, Pancho Dencio and a host of other brown-skinned little fighting men from Manila and its suburbs.

Walk Miller, manager of the late Tiger Flowers, was and still is the ace manager of the South.

If Walk strung all of his stable together, their dogs, or feet, would cover the entire Mason-Dixon line. He has Young Stirling, Clyde Hull, Tommy White, Tommy Jones, Bob Lawson and a raft of others who bend ears all over the Georgia-Alabama circuit but are not known in the big cities.

Eddie Sears with Mushy Callahan heading his list, is one of the affluent figures on the Pacific Coast.

Leo P. Plynt, once the biggest dealer of them all, was at his height when he had Brennan, Renault and a few other stars topping an elaborate string. Jack Dougherty, the Baron of Leipsville, has made a come-back with George Godfrey but for a long time Red Barrett was the piece de resistance of this stable.

Paddy Mullins was in his prime with Harry Wills, Pete Latzo, George Courtney and Phil McGraw, but Wills is through and Latzo has deserted the ranks.

Then there is another angle to this business. Just as there are independent bookers in the theatrical racket, so are there bookers who send in fighters to every spot in the country. Joe Jacobs and Billy McCatney are the best known pair of bookers in the fight game. Associated with Pete Reilly, they book out of their office Jack Delaney, Frankie Genaro, Jack McVey, Joe Glick, Sammy Vogel, Eddie (Kid) Wagner, Solly Seeman, Phil Krug Andre Routis Ray Miller and five or six others.

FAIR OR FOUL

John McGraw's winter will be pretty well taken up rebuilding his 1927 ball team into one that he thinks can win a 1928 pennant for him. The Little Napoleon intimates that he was going to be rather busy at this job yesterday while ducking several lost friends who bobbed up suddenly in search of the highly elusive Army and Navy tickets.

As soon as this football is out of the way I will be able to think about baseball," said the master mind, firmly donning a pair of long white whiskers as another gent bobbed up at the information window to ask if his "friend, John" was in. "With this Army and Navy thing up at the Polo Grounds on Saturday, I can't think of anything else. I'd rather see a baseball game up there myself, but some of my nephews want to go and Mrs. McGraw and, of course a lot of my friends. They've got me as dizzy as the next fellow, trying to get tickets."

"I will stay in New York through all of the holidays and try to make a few trades that I think will help the Giants for next year. What deals in particular? Well, it's a little too early to say anything about that but I have a general idea of what I want and a general idea of where I might get it. After next week we will begin to get down to these things in earnest."

The fact that McGraw will stay in New York through the best part of the winter plainly indicates that he is going to be Johnny on the spot in the ivory market places this year. He will stay around until after the first of the year and if everything necessary to a good start in 1928 is pretty well cleaned up by that time he will take his annual vacation in Havana, staying there three or four weeks and then joining the Giants at their Southern training camp.

The Little Napoleon looks fit for a lot of hard work this winter and has entirely recuperated from the distressing illness which kept him off the Giant bench and confined him to his Pullman home during several weeks of the season.

Though the Yanks won't have to do as much bartering for next season as the Giants will, things will begin to hum on the other side of 42nd Street next week, too, when Ed Barrow, business manager of the Yanks comes back from his annual vacation.

Cousin Egbert while he hasn't been getting the fine first-page notices that Irvin Cobb gets, is something of a quail shooter himself and advises from the North Carolina mountains, where Cousin Egbert is hunting are to the effect that the local quail will be very grateful when Ed goes home.

Barrow is due back at his desk Monday and will be joined within a couple of weeks by your little manager, Mr. Hugstins. Hug, at present polishing off his golf game in St. Petersburg, will be up a week or so before the annual baseball meetings in New York on December 15.

The large Master Ruth knows what Bruce Caldwell feels like now, for after leading home the field in the fourth annual golf tournament of the New York Chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association over the Coldstream Golf Club course yesterday he was ruled ineligible. After the Babe turned in an 86 for the lowest score of the day it was suspected that he had played golf before.

Wesley M. E., St. Edmund's Cage Teams Win In Opener

The church basketball season opened last night at the Richmond Y. M. C. A. with the teams from the Wesley Methodist and St. Edmund's Episcopal church, coming out on top.

In the 7 o'clock contest the Wesley Methodist church won over the Grace Lutherans, 28 to 10. Melin, Hosking, Hutton and Black made most of the points for the Wesley team, while Johnson was high point man of the Lutherans.

The St. Edmund's team beat the First Baptist church by reason of heavier attack, the final score, 18 to 7. The game was not as lopsided as the score might show, the Baptists putting up a good battle.

Fenix, Overaa and Goldsworthy of the St. Edmund's team did the necessary scoring and M. Baskett, Linstead, F. Baskett and Chambers gained points for the First Baptist team.

Lineups for the evening's play: Grace Lutherans, Thieme and Baldwin, forwards; Fenix, center; Goldsworthy and Johnson, guards; Rirst Baptist, M. Baskett, and Linstead, forwards; F. Baskett and Sowers, centers; R. Chambers, J. McLean, Regalla and D'Arcy, guards.

St. Edmund's team, Baker, Siple and Overaa, forwards; Fenix, center; Goldsworthy and Johnson, guards; Rirst Baptist, M. Baskett, and Linstead, forwards; F. Baskett and Sowers, centers; R. Chambers, J. McLean, Regalla and D'Arcy, guards.

M'Racken And Maliks Hold City League Second Place

Two teams are still tied for second place in the Richmond Basketball City League according to an announcement made yesterday by W. L. "Doc" Sawright, director of the league. Ben Maliks' Style Experts are tied with Ward McCracken Clothiers as the result of Monday night's games. The tie may be broken Thursday night when the Maliks meet the Santa Fe Tie Walkers at the Junior High School Auditorium. The preliminary game will be played by the Mechanics Bank quintet and the LaMoine Druggists.

So far this season the Bankers have been unable to break into the scoring column but the Bankers have high hopes of trouncing the strong Druggists.

All games this season have been closely fought with every man on the team doing his share or more. The games have been cleanly played and good sportsmanship has been shown by every player.

Sawright declared yesterday that the season this year has been the most successful since the league was organized.

Attendance records, Sawright stated, have been shattered and it is expected that as the season progresses and the championship looms all records will be broken.

Pullman Defeats Cookie Team 11-0

Last Sunday, Pullman Richmond Team defeated the league leading Mothers Cookies Team by the score of 11 to 0.

DeLucchi, star left-hander of the Pullman Club stepped into the hall of fame when he pitched a no-hit, no-run game; he also struck out 15 batters and was master of the situation at all times. He is one of the most consistent winning pitchers in the Bay region and will some day be heard from in professional circles.

Gray, first baseman for Pullman, led the hitting attack starting with a single, following this with a double, then a triple and winding up the day's performance with a home run, all of his hits were hard drives.

The Pullman team is going to be hard to stop if they continue to show the snap and fight they showed Sunday. Manager Paul Huston has the boys hustling at all times hence the reason they have not as yet suffered a defeat in the league.

TROJANS HEAR DRURY SCORE GAME RULING

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 29.—Three thousand University of Southern California students today heard Morley Drury, captain of the U. S. C. football team, declare his outfit was robbed of victory in the 7-6 game with Notre Dame at Chicago last Saturday.

U. S. C. students gave their team a thunderous welcome home on the campus. In an address to the student body Drury said, referring to the ruling on the disputed play, behind the Notre Dame goal line:

"After all has been said and done, we feel that we have traveled a long distance to be robbed of a victory."

The ruling by John Schommer was the subject of a statement made by Coach Howard Jones upon the team's arrival here.

"Understand this, I make no alibi for losing," Jones said. "But I'm tired of taking everything in the name of good sportsmanship."

Drury in a statement said: "The officials of the game know what I think of their ruling on that disputed play, which was the 'hook' of the game."

In his address Drury declared he and his mates had left for "Chicago expecting to 'bring home the bacon,' but now he stood before his fellow students empty handed."

"All of us, from the coach to the lowliest substitute, felt very badly about our defeat," he declared.

"But we shall go into the game with Washington Saturday with an undaunted determination to win. We're tired now, but we'll be ready for the game Saturday."

Various other U. S. C. players when interviewed affirmed their belief that U. S. C. had been given the short end of the deal on the disputed safety play.

Joey Hibbs, tackle, added that "Chicago treated us fine and Notre Dame is a great team."

Harold J. Stonier, Vice-president of the University, in welcoming the team home, said:

"We are proud of the eleven that represented us in Chicago. Although we came out on the short end of the score we do not feel we were defeated."

"I used to think that to kick point after touchdown was the most important thing in the game but after last Saturday, I find that line bucking, forward passes, and runs and official's decisions are more important when you add up the score."

WILSON SCHOOL OPENING IS SET FOR JANUARY 9

The slate roof on the Woodrow Wilson elementary school is progressing without danger from rains, according to City Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms who declared that the latest addition to the city schools will be ready for opening January 9.

Interior finishing will be started within a few days; the large playgrounds are being filled in and put in shape for the opening.

The new Woodrow Wilson school is located at Forty-second street and Roosevelt avenue and will accommodate the pupils in that section of the city now attending the Grant school. It is designed to relieve the present congestion.

Big Response Assures Red Cross Success

That Richmond will go over the top in the 11th Annual Roll Call was the opinion of George A. Rader, Roll Call Chairman, in a statement issued yesterday. Over $2400.00 which is more than twice the amount subscribed last year, is the amount brought in to date for the present drive.

With the memberships mounting daily, and several industrial plant solicitors reporting additional enrollments to be turned in during the week the success of the Roll Call is well assured.

Rader further expressed his opinion that the feeling of sympathy toward the Red Cross shown by the people of Richmond was not the only factor involving the success of the present drive. Much credit, is due the members of the Roll Call committee who with very efficient and untiring energy pushed the soliciting throughout the enrollment period. This committee of which Rader spoke so enthusiastically was composed of Mrs. Hazel W. Piekard, Roll Call Secretary, Mrs. Francis Kent Publicity, Mrs. E. I. Scofield Women's Groups.

Mrs. Emily Axtell, Foreign Groups.
Rev. H. I. Oberholtzer, Service Clubs and Ministerial Ass'n.
Way M. Neville, Special Gifts.
Bert Scoble, Industrial.
A. G. Padakis Treasurer.
Mrs. Geo. Rader, Booths.
Homer W. Patterson, Professional.
W. T. Helms, Educational.
Mrs. Ella Gerrish, Pinole.
Mrs. Sara Rowden Point Richmond.
Mrs. L. B. Salituri, El Cerrito.
A. D. Jones and E. L. Scofield Fraternal.

The above committees were ably assisted by many well known Richmond people.

Roll Call Headquarters will keep open daily from 1:00 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Old Santa Is Given Welcome On Visit Here

Mahnke were powerless to keep back the boards of children eager to clasp the hand of old Santa Claus. Louis Garfinkle, chairman of the Merchants committee that planned the activities for this year and Clifford Anglim, secretary, welcomed Santa Claus. Mayor Mattie Chandler extended the greetings of the city to the aviator from the north as he stepped from his biplane, decorated in Christmas colors.

HOTEL ENTERTAINS
After greeting a number of the children and picking several of them up in his arms the jovial gift-giver stopped his way to the street where a machine waited for him to carry him to the Hotel Carquinez, where he rested until the night celebration. Santa was guest of honor at a dinner presided over by the manager, Fred Risley, and attended by a number of Richmond persons.

CHRISTMAS IS HERE
All day, the windows of the merchants were veiled while Christmas displays were being installed. Last night, the merchants removed the coverings from the windows and the public had their first glimpse of the 1927 stock of Christmas gifts. Following the celebration in Memorial park the public walked along Macdonald avenue peering into the windows in their Christmas decorations and feeling that the Christmas season had really arrived.

MANY EVENTS PLANNED
The celebration yesterday is not all that the merchants have planned for the holiday season. From now until Christmas there will be various activities for the citizens of Richmond and Macdonald avenue within a few days will be garbed in holiday decorations. The merchants are anxious to make their activities this year surpass anything in the past and by the way they have started, it appears they will achieve their object.

UNUSUAL TALK GIVEN LIONS

are the biggest forces in advertising, he declared. Both type and unusual appearances stand out because they cause an interruption in the general order of things.

"The man who listens to all the people who would discourage or criticize will never get anywhere."

"They say" has killed more originality than any other thing. "I don't thank Pullman for putting beds in cars, although I use them frequently. What I do thank him for is having the intestinal fortitude to be original when all the world laughed at him."

"I have been in 48 states on this trip and I haven't seen a single reason for any business depression, although we felt the effects of it."

"When confidence is established between buyer and seller nine-tenths of the sale is made."

"I bought an automobile without knowing the make of car because I had confidence in the man who sold it to me."

"Many a man is attempting to sell real estate in Florida when he couldn't live on it himself except in a houseboat. You must first be sold on anything before you can sell it to others."

"You've got to sell yourself to yourself before you amount to much."

Ed Hoffman, city engineer, was chairman of the day and Dr. A. B. Hinkley, at whose invitation the speaker came to Richmond, introduced the speaker. Members of the chiropractic profession were in attendance.

DEDICATION OF SHAFT TO WAR DEAD DEC. 11

to the survivors of veterans from Contra Costa who gave their lives in the great conflict, to civic and fraternal groups, women's organizations, church leaders, and communities as a whole inviting them to join in the dedicatory exercises.

MATERIAL DONATED
Material and labor for the monument were donated by Contra Costa industries and citizens, much of the work was done by prisoners from the county jail who volunteered to do their bit in honor of the soldier dead. The structure is a shaft of 60 feet high of concrete, with a base of the shaft 14 feet square, and the base of the memorial 51 feet square. On each side of the memorial statues of soldiers will be erected with a plaque, a duplicate of the one on the Victory marker at Bridgehead, containing the names of every Contra Costan who died in the World War. A flagpole 50 feet in height is being erected beside the memorial. Wallace Snellgrove of Richmond has superintended construction work.

PRESS REPRESENTED
Among the names to be placed on bronze plaque as a member of the Press of Contra Costa county, will be that of Guy E. Milnes, publisher of the Richmond RECORD-HERALD. A copy of the paper will also be inclosed in the dedication box.

Over 550 automobiles owners made donations that the shaft might be erected, ably supplemented by the aid of the following leading business men and firms of the county:

$22,000 Sought For Crash Injuries

MARTINEZ, Nov. 29.—Trial was started today before a jury in Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie's court of suits instituted by Mrs. Maud Renfree and her son, Herbert, 15, against Henry De Haas for injuries they sustained on May 17 at El Cerrito in a collision of cars driven by young Renfree and De Haas. Mrs. Renfree is asking $12,000 and her son is seeking judgment of $10,000. They charge responsibility for the accident to De Haas.
